Please join TIWA and our esteemed guest speaker as we explore the topic of Mindful Leadership.

In today's ever-changing, fast-paced, and on-demand working world – efficiency matters. We are constantly challenged to do more, faster, and with less. We often run the risk of running on autopilot whenever we are faced with multiple demands on our time and attention.

On April 25th, we offer you the opportunity to learn more about the impact of mindfulness practices in the workplace and experience first-hand the difference they can make on yourself and with those who you love and lead.

Janey Piroli
